A great many cars are carrying people to the picnic grounds where everybody is assured of a good time. One of the animals gets his car and calls for his girl. He whistles for her from downstairs and we see a small garment hanging on the line. As he whistles, the garment walks into the open window. And then we see a great big husky girl come out.

Julius and Mrs. Julius are preparing all the kids for the outing. Mrs. Julius puts them in the tub, then through the wringer and off they go to have Julius put on their panties and hats. When they are all ready, Julius gets his bicycle, and they all pile on, and off they are to the picnic grounds.

The mothers all check their children with a nurse who puts them each in a bag. If any cry, she hits them on the head with a large mallet.

The animals all play games and have a good time. In the mean time, an army of mice starts carrying off the food. Alice discovers this, warns the crowd and they chase the mice.

The END.
